

Brazos River Charter School District-Wide Parental Involvement Policy

400.050 Parent and Community Involvement

The governing body (“Board”) of Brazos River Charter School adopts the following policy which shall be effective on the date that the policy is adopted by the Board.

Section 1. Parental Involvement

DISTRICT WIDE PARENTAL INVOLVEMENT POLICY

PART I. GENERAL EXPECTATIONS

Brazos River Charter School agrees to implement the following statutory requirements:

Brazos River Charter School will put into operation programs, activities and procedures for the involvement of parents in all of its schools with Title I, Part A programs, consistent with section 1118 of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act (ESEA). Those programs, activities and procedures will be planned and operated with meaningful consultation with parents of participating children.

- Consistent with section 1118, Brazos River Charter School will work with its schools to ensure that the required school-level parental involvement policies meet the requirements of section 1118(b) of the ESEA, and each include, as a component, a school-parent compact consistent with section 1118(d) of the ESEA.
- Brazos River Charter School will incorporate this district wide parental involvement policy into its LEA plan developed under section 1112 of the ESEA.
- In carrying out the Title I, Part A parental involvement requirements, to the extent practicable, Brazos River Charter School and its schools will provide full opportunities for the participation of parents with limited English proficiency, parents with disabilities, and parents of migratory children, including providing information and school reports required under section 1111 of the ESEA in an understandable and uniform format and, including alternative formats upon request, and, to the extent practicable, in a language parents understand.
- If the Brazos River Charter School plan for Title I, Part A, developed under section 1112 of the ESEA, is not satisfactory to the parents of participating children, Brazos River Charter School will submit any parent comments with the plan when Brazos River Charter School submits the plan to the Texas Education Agency.
- Brazos River Charter School will involve the parents of children served in Title I, Part A schools in decisions about how the 1 percent of Title I, Part A funds reserved for parental involvement is spent, and will ensure that not less than 95 percent of the one percent reserved goes directly to the schools.

Brazos River Charter School District-Wide Parental Involvement Policy

- Brazos River Charter School will be governed by the following statutory definition of parental involvement, and expects that its Title I schools will carry out programs, activities and procedures in accordance with this definition:

Parental involvement means the participation of parents in regular, two-way, and meaningful communication involving student academic learning and other school activities, including ensuring—

- i. that parents play an integral role in assisting their child's learning;
  - ii. that parents are encouraged to be actively involved in their child's education at school;
  - iii. that parents are full partners in their child's education and are included, as appropriate, in decision-making and on advisory committees to assist in the education of their child;
  - iv. that parents play an integral role in assisting their child's learning;
  - v. that parents are encouraged to be actively involved in their child's education at school;
  - vi. that parents are full partners in their child's education and are included, as appropriate, in decision-making and on advisory committees to assist in the education of their child;
  - vii. the carrying out of other activities, such as those described in section 1118 of the ESEA.
- Brazos River Charter School will inform parents and parental organizations of the purpose and existence of the Parental Information and Resource Center in the State, which is PATH Project, and can be accessed through the Region 11 web site.